I.

On October 28, 2016, Defendant appeared before the Court for initial appearance on the petition and warrant for revocation of supervised release issued by this Court.

Defendant was represented by Deputy Federal Public Defender ("DFPD") Richard Goldman.

The Court has reviewed the Pretrial Services Report and its recommendation of detention, the allegations in the Violation Petition and the Government's Request for Detention.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.1(a)(6) and 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a) following Defendant's arrest for alleged violation(s) of the terms of Defendant's ☐ probation / ☒ supervised release,

The Court finds that :

A. ☒ Defendant has not carried his burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that Defendant will appear for further proceedings as required if released [18 U.S.C. § 3142(b-c)]. This finding is based on:

☒ Allegations in petition include defendant's arrest for robbery (and subsequent conviction) in September 2004, two days after he was discharged from a community corrections center in violation of a court order requiring him to reside at a community corrections center.

B. ☒ Defendant has not carried his burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that Defendant will not endanger the safety of any other person or the community if released [18 U.S.C. § 3142(b-c)]. This finding is based on:

☒ criminal history

☒ allegations in the Petition for Revocation

III.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be detained pending further proceedings.
